POTTER COUNTY HUMAN SERVICES

“Serving families for over 35 years.”

62 North St., P. O. Box 241

Roulette, PA 16746

(800) 800-2560

(814) 544-7315

The following is a quick list of the resources available to Potter County Residents.

The philosophy of PCHS is that the needs of those we serve are of primary importance and that our programs and services should be easy to access. Additionally, this directory of community services is meant to provide support to individuals of all ages and assist Potter County residents in their efforts to raise healthy children and families.

Potter County Human Services has been a coordinated Human Services system since 1987 and consists of the following departments and services:

Area Agency on Aging

Children, Youth & Families

Coordinated Services

Drug and Alcohol

Early Intervention

Intellectual Disabilities

Mental Health

Mission of Potter County Human Services:

To provide a coordinated and collaborative system of social services to Potter County Residents, with the goal of increasing individual and family self-sufficiency.

*Every effort has been made to verify information within this Directory, however, please be advised that 800 numbers and websites tend to change frequently and without notice.
Revised February 2024.*
